

Transgender Day of Remembrance

What is the Transgender Day of Remembrance?

The Transgender Day of Remembrance is a day used to memorialize those who have died due to transphobia or transgender hatred.

2013 TDOR EVENTS:

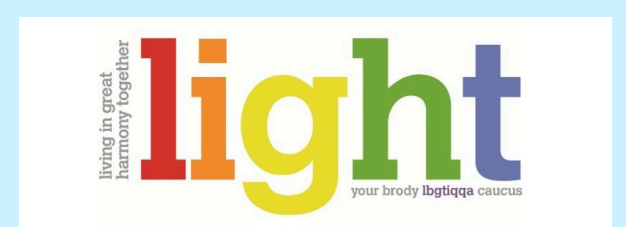

Monday, November 18, 8 p.m. Wednesday, November 20, 7 p.m.

Trans* Thoughts

Light is bringing in a guest speaker, George Hickman who is a member of the Trans* community. Hickman will share stories, and then the floor will be open for a Question and Answer session. Light is held in room 175 of the Brody main building.

Transgender Day of Remembrance Vigil

Trans*Action and the LGBTRC are hosting a vigil on the banks of the Red Cedar, behind The Rock. There will be a warm up directly following, location TBA. Vigil rain location is 222 Erickson Hall.

Tuesday, November 19, 8 p.m.

Masquerade Drag Show

In the Wonders Kiva, Prism is sponsoring a Masquerade themed drag show, complete with with free mocktails. First 100 guests will receive masks, and T-Shirts will be available for a $5 donation. All proceeds will go to the Ruth Ellis Center for LGBT homeless youth.